Message of thanks for participation in the Eleventh Japan-Russia Energy and Environment Dialogue in Niigata

Dear Mr. Gromov Alexey Igorevich,

We would like to extend our best wishes for your continued good health. We would also like to express our profound gratitude for, as ever, the exceptional trouble you have taken for us.

We offer our sincere thanks for making time in your busy schedule to attend the “Eleventh Japan-Russia Energy and Environment Dialogue in Niigata”.

Having the presentations from experts about energy resources and environment, the conference has become a fruitful occasion to examine possibilities and challenges of cooperation between Japan and Russia. We appreciate your cooperation for making such opportunity valuable.

Moreover, it is planned to publish the conference reports in ERINA REPORT No. 147 which is to be published on 19 April, and once it is published we will also send you a copy.

On a closing note, along with looking forward greatly to your continued support and cooperation, we would like to wish you continued success in all your undertakings and the very best of health.

Sincerely yours,

MARUYAMA Yoshiaki

Chairperson,

The Japan–Russia Energy and Environment Dialogue in Niigata Executive Committee
Secretary-General, Economic Research Institute for Northeast Asia (ERINA)
